On Wednesday, November 8th at 10 am (Online), Mark Schonwetter will share his harrowing story of survival during the Holocaust with South Hunterdon Middle School students as we remember the pogrom in Germany that took place November 9th & 10th of 1938.

As a child born in Poland in 1933, Mark, his sister, and their mother survived in the ghetto, in hiding, and managed to make a beautiful life for themselves after the war. Join us to hear this first-person account from Mark Schonwetter.
